Project for incoming 12th grade students - Participation in Government

Background - There are now only 2 candidates left in the race for President in the 2016 election.

Part I: Create a chart/graphic organizer for this project: (you may use the sample chart provided)

Students must identify the candidates and research the following:

For each candidate:

- a. State -2 foreign political viewpoint
- b. State -2 domestic political viewpoint

Part II - Research the candidates' qualifications for President

1. Write a "mudslinging" campaign speech where you denounce your political opponent and praise the qualifications of the candidate you would support for in the election.
2. Speech must be at least 2 pages in length and be properly researched.
3. The Paper must be typed:

- A. Use font size 12
- B. Use 1 inch margins
- C. Have a separate cover sheet that includes:

- Your name
- Your student ID number
- Your teacher's name and period

4. You must cite your sources and document any resources quoted, paraphrased, or ideas used

DUE Wednesday, September 14, 2016

This summer assignment is a requirement for the course. Failure to submit this assignment will affect your first marking period grade, as well as your overall grade for the course. The mark you earn will count as a test grade toward your first marking period report grade. The grade will appear on your first marking period report card.
